

Terms and conditions

Definitions and Interpretation

In this document Andiamo is referred to as Us, We and Our. You, the consumer/client, will be referred to as You and Your.

The act of You requesting and accepting Our services and/or goods enters both parties into a binding sales contract. Standard UK consumer law contract for the provision of goods and/or services provides You with protection. The law is so well defined that the need for detailed terms and conditions is almost unnecessary. However, in order to provide assurance and insight into how We operate, We've set out Our Terms and Conditions below. You should notify Us at the earliest opportunity if You feel a particular condition gives cause for concern or confusion. Please note that Your basic consumer rights are not affected.

Services and Appointment

We are appointed on a non-exclusive basis and nothing shall prevent us from contracting or dealing with any other clients in relation to the services or similar services.

We reserve the right to refuse service to anyone for any reason at any time.

We reserve the right to change the pricing structure at any time and without notice.

An estimate for services provided to the Client does not constitute an offer and We reserve the right to withdraw or revise an estimate at any time prior to entering into an agreement.

We are not currently VAT registered which means We do not charge VAT on Our services making Our prices more affordable.

Our estimates are valid for 30-days from the date of issue unless otherwise specified on the estimate.

In accepting an estimate for services provided to You, You confirm that You have read, understood, and accept these Terms and Conditions.

We shall exercise reasonable skill and care in the provision of Our services and guarantee that the services will be provided by competent personnel.

We will not knowingly provide services that infringe any other third party intellectual property rights.

We may subcontract any part of the service at Our discretion.

Both parties shall provide each other with clear and accurate information and co-operate in relation to the provision of the service. If You request any details of the service to be amended, this must be made in writing as soon as they are known. In discussion with You, We will use reasonable endeavours to make any required changes. Any additional costs will be included in the fees and will be invoiced to You.

You must obtain all necessary licences and permissions before the date on which the services are to start, if any are required, other than those held by Andiamo for the conduct of its business.

In the event that We require decisions, approvals or any other communication from You in order to continue with the provision of the services, You will provide these in a reasonable and timely manner.

Any delay in the provision of the services resulting from Your failure or delay in complying with any of the provisions of these Terms and Conditions shall not be the responsibility or fault of Andiamo.

If in Our sole judgement, You fail, or We suspect that You have failed, to comply with these Terms and Conditions, We may terminate Our agreement at any time without notice and You will remain liable for all amounts due up to and including the date of termination.

Payment

We will issue an invoice for payment in a timely manner, with any expenses included on the same invoice. Unless alternative terms have been agreed prior to the commencement of services, all amounts must be paid in full by bank transfer within 7 days of the invoice date.

All respective expenses incurred by us in the performance of the services will be fully reimbursed by You. On Your request prior to payment, We shall provide receipts for expense claims.

Where payment is not received within 7 days of invoice date We may charge interest on a daily basis from the due date for payment until the actual date of payment, both before and after any judgment, at 8% per annum above the Bank of England's base rate.

For larger projects You will be asked to pay the estimated total in stages over the course of the project. We may issue a payment schedule, which will be agreed with You prior to commencement. In this instance payment of Your project is due within 7-days of the issue date on each invoice, or per the agreed payment schedule.

You will be charged as per the amounts detailed in the estimate provided. Where an estimate was not provided, You will be charged at the agreed hourly rate, plus any other reasonable expenses as applicable. If the estimated costs are likely to change once work has commenced due to unforeseen circumstances, You will be consulted on how to proceed.

Where You request an in-person meeting, travel time will be charged at the agreed hourly rate. If You confirm a booking with Andiamo Business Assistance for a specific date and time (including calls) and subsequently cancel with less than 24 hours' notice, we reserve the right to charge for the booked time unless we are able to reallocate this time to another client. Where You book a specific period (for example, two hours) and subsequently require less time, We reserve the right to charge for the full booked period. If additional time is required beyond the original booking, We will endeavour to accommodate this and will charge at the agreed hourly rate; however, We reserve the right to request that such additional time is scheduled for a future date and time.

As a Virtual Assistant, We provide advice, support, and services designed to assist businesses. Where You contact Us for advice or support, We reserve the right to charge for the time spent responding to Your queries. This includes, but is not limited to, telephone calls, emails, and other forms of communication. Such charges will be calculated at the agreed hourly rate and may be invoiced separately or included in Your next invoice. By contacting Us for advice or support, You acknowledge and agree to the possibility of such charges.

Variations will be summarised on the invoice for clarity and future reference.

You may be asked to provide a deposit to guarantee Your booking. In this instance, You will be notified in writing.

If Your personal circumstances change during the project, You are obliged to inform Us immediately in order that We may, where feasible, adjust the work specification to suit Your budget. Where We cannot reasonably agree an adjustment to the specification, We may withdraw Our services completely. In this instance You are liable to pay for the work and materials provided up until the point of termination. You may also be liable to cover cancellation costs.

If you find you are unable to pay an invoice, You must state Your reason to Us immediately in writing and no later than 48-hours of the invoice being issued. If You are unhappy with Our services at any time, then please tell Us immediately so We can begin to correct matters.

If there is a difference of opinion over any particular matter, either ongoing or completed, that We cannot settle formally between Us, We will engage the use of a professional mediator. The cost of this will be shared equally by both parties in order that swift resolution be brought to the dispute. Other dispute resolution procedures are available, We are open to these should You feel they are more suitable.
